From the Pastor's Heart

G.R.O.W. training is being offered on Sundays and on March 14-15 as we prepare to launch G.R.O.W. in April. We are still in need of team leaders for the teams. G.R.O.W. is one of the ways that Beallwood can respond to the Lord's call in our lives to share the gospel. It is not the only way, but it is one way that we can be faithful as a local congregation to share the gospel. May I encourage our church family to be part of the training.

"CrossOver907" will be Saturday, March 26. This is an attempt by our Columbus Baptist Association and our churches to penetrate one of the most unchurched zip codes in Muscogee County. As a rule of thumb, people are unchurched because they are lost. The effort on our part will be to go door to door in that zip code area and present the gospel to our citizens. Then that afternoon, we will have block parties to provide an opportunity to build relationships with our neighbors. May I ask our church family to continue to sign up and be part of this most important day.

The "Partnership with Allen" is going to begin soon. We are attempting to put in place the leadership and work out the logistics of being able to minister to Allen Elementary. May I encourage our church family to be praying and continue to pray and ask specifically for the Lord's leadership and the empowering of the Holy Spirit as we move forward. Though the school year is going to end quickly, there are some significant ways that we can help before school closes for the summer. Training for the "Read Georgia" leadership will begin today at 3:00 in the fellowship hall.

The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering will be one of our commitments during the spring. May I challenge our church family to prayerfully seek the Lord, and let's give for God's glory and for the opportunity to engage our nation. These are critical times, and we need to be faithful in praying, sharing, going, and giving. Let's give so that we might reach the nations in North America.

May God's grace and peace be yours today. May we be faithful to go and share the gospel with those who are our neighbors, friends, and acquaintances. Pray for one another.

You Will Be My Witnesses!
Acts 1:4-11

The resurrected Lord is preparing for His flight to Heaven!

His lifetime has spanned a time of faithful ministry for His Father and to His followers.

Jesus, in the closing time with His followers, reminds them of His expectations as He ascends to Heaven.

Jesus is empowering His followers to be witnesses and to continue His ministry.

What assures us of being a witness for our Lord?
