From the Pastor's Heart

August ushers in the return of the children to school. That means that our partnership with Allen Elementary will be gearing up for the school year of 22-23. This also means that we need volunteers. The most critical need currently is volunteers for tutors. Linda Rutland will be providing training for those interested this afternoon at 3:00 in the fellowship hall. May I challenge and encourage our church family to volunteer for this mission opportunity. We have talked about attempting to make a difference in our neighborhood; here is our opportunity, Beallwood, to touch the lives of children, build relationships with families, and take the gospel to those who need the Lord. So, please fill out the form in the Beacon and return it to the church office.

Mission Georgia will be launching in a few weeks. Mission Georgia is the commitment of Georgia Baptist churches to share the gospel in Georgia, reach our state for the Lord, and make a huge impact on a culture that greatly needs our influence. Whether in human trafficking, childcare, Internationals, or dealing with literacy, Georgia Baptists are committed to redeeming the culture around us by impacting the state through acts of kindness and meeting personal needs. Prayerfully seek the Lord as we all plan to give in September.

This morning during worship, the Pastor will be looking at a message that is designed to assist our church family in understanding the transitional period. The deacon body will be bringing a recommendation to the church body on Sunday, September 14, to secure the services of Brother Jimmy Blanton to assist the church in this process. The message this morning will provide insight into what the next few months will look like for our church family, the challenge that we all need to face to ensure that we, as a church body, stay focused, and the commitment that we all need to make to strengthen our fellowship. Please continue to make prayer your greatest commitment going forward.

May the Lord bless each one today. May the Holy Sprit fill our lives, and may we all be faithful in sharing the gospel. The Lord sends moments to all of us to present the gospel and to love someone for Jesus; may we all be faithful.

Brother Billy

Celebrating God's Goodness, Preparing for God's Best!
Proverbs 16:1-3, 9; 20:18

The wisdom of God and following His leadership provide the best for us.

The passage before us today deals with the art of applying
God's wisdom in preparing for the future.

God's Word reminds us: "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him." (1 Corinthians 2:9)

Today, we are going to take the time to look at what the deacons and I are attempting to do in preparing for our future as a church family.

So, how can we best understand the journey?

_____ does it mean for us to go through a transitional process?

_____ are we calling this a transitional process?

_____ will the transitional process begin?

_____ will lead us during and through this transitional process?

_____ will this transitional process lead us?
